FOR SALE,
The Tract of LAND
On which I live, situate about ten miles from Lexington;

CONTAINING about six hundred acres—it includes Boone's creek, which divides Fayette and Clarke counties: on said creek I have a double Grist Mill, and an excellent place for a distillery. It is well calculated for two good farms, there being two considerable improvements separate and apart from each other. The land is equal to any in the State, and has several never failing springs of excellent water.—Cath, or Cash and Negroes, will answer in payment, and credit may be had for a considerable proportion, and an indisputable title will be made by

C. Morgan.

August 15.

FOR SALE,

ABOUT five hundred Acres of LAND, lying on the waters of Boca's creek, about eight miles from Lexington, known by the name of Woodstock. A further description is unnecessary, as any person, desirous to purchase, would with first to view the premises.—The title is indisputable and the terms may be known by an application to Capt. JOHN FOWLER, Lexington, or the subscriber, Woodford.

WHEREAS

I PASSED a bond in December, in the year 1791, to a certain Jacob Yoter, for fifty odd pounds, the said bond was given for a tract of land which the said Yoter was to give me a sufficient deed for the said land, and as the land is in dispute, I do forbid and forewarn all persons from taking an assignment on the said bond, as I am determined not to pay it till I get a deed for the said land.

TO THE

LAYS OF KENTUCKY;

Whereby a person may see at one view all the acts which have been passed since the commencement of the State, on any particular subject.

CALCULATED

For the use and convenience of magistrates, attorneys, sheriffs, clerks, coroners and others, who are necessitated to have frequent recourse to the laws.

STRAYED from the subscriber the last day of March 1795, a black or dark brown mare, (rots, pieces and canters, about 6 years old last spring, between 14 and 15 hands high, was burnt for the poll-evil last March, remarkably crooked behind, hid a shoe on one of her fore feet, remarkably ill-natured when any person approaches her, by leaving her ears, who has a large brand or scar on her near buttock, no letters to be discovered in the brand: Any person who will take up said mare, shall have a reward of eight dollars, by delivering her to the subscriber living on Lane's run, Scott county three miles from George-Town.

Public Notice.

HAT on the 10th day of May 1789, I located by virtue of a Land-Office Treasury warrant, 400 acres of land on a dividing ridge of the waters of Stoner, in the now county of Clarke: Beginning on the East side of the first creek (now known by the name of Woodruff) that empties into the main South fork of Licking below the Red lick, (now called Bramble's lick,) and about one mile down the said creek from Thomas Winn's North-East corner, and running Westwardly for quantity across the creek.— That on the 21st day of May 1784, I caused the said entry to be surveyed according to location and have since obtained a patent therefor. And as the testimony respecting the said beginning depends on persons now living, in order to perpetuate their testimony I obtained from the County court of Clarke, at their last court, an order appointing commissioners to examine and take the depositions of such persons as I might judge proper, by virtue of an Act of Assembly entitled 'An Act to ascertain the boundaries of lands and for other purposes.'—All whom it may concern therefore, are defined to take notice, that on the 2d day of September next, I shall attend with the commissioners appointed and sundry witnesses at the said beginning of my 400 acre survey as aforesaid when & where I shall take the depositions of the said witnesses, in order to establish the same and do such other acts therein, as may appear necessary and as the said law directs.

BY YESTERDAY'S MAIL.

PARIS, Praial 3, (May 22.)
The Convention received the news of a new treaty signed between the French Republic and the king of Prussia, on Floral 28th, (May 17th) in consequence of the seventh article of the first treaty. Some states of Germany have agreed to withdraw their contingent, neutrality is to be observed with them, and a line of demarcation has been consequently drawn. Austria will soon remain alone to combat on the Rhine, and hopes of a general peace are entertained.

LONDON, May 25.
The French appear to have commenced the campaign in Catalonia, with such success as gives reason to fear that they will penetrate to Barcelona. In Navarre, the Spaniards have made two successful attempts to dislodge them from their posts before Pampluna, the probable consequence of which is the fall of that place.

The conclusion of a second treaty between the king of Prussia and the French Republic, which was announced to the convention, on the 22d of May, is evidently another effort of the design to promote a Prussian ascendancy in Germany, and null, therefore, be another temptation of the emperor, to relinquish the war, for the purpose of opposing the ascendancy.
Already 3 princes have accepted the king of Prussia's mediation, and with it his protection of their neutrality. Others are likely to follow; and, thus, not only will the influence of the emperor be daily diminishing, but the line of country upon which his forces can act, be narrowed.

June 2.
Ministers are still so confident of the practicability of starving France, that they have sent out orders for making prize of American ships, bound to France with corn or provisions. This we understand they have notified to Mr.
Jay, alleging that the cargoes of those ships belong to the French Government.

Thus on a wild speculation of their own, and at a time when one of their agents has just returned from France, and brought them an account, that although bread be very scarce, potatoes, other vegetables, and butcher's meat, are in great plenty, and at very moderate prices, they hazard another dispute with America, and subject the people of England, to the payment of half a million of smart money, for their folly.

June 6.
At length we are relieved from a painful suspense respecting the fate of the Hamburg packets, by the arrival of four of them at Yarmouth late on Wednesday night.

The general tenor of the news is, that every thing on the Continent bears the appearance of a most vigorous prosecution of the war.
So far from the Emperor having any disposition towards peace, large bodies of Imperial troops are marching down in all directions towards the Rhine; among whom are 16000 Austrian Cavalry. The Elector of Saxony, who has been reported in the Paris papers to have accepted of a neutrality with the Republic, has determined in conjunction with the Emperor, to carry on the war; and his serene Highness is using the most powerful exertions in forwarding supplies, both of men and provisions, to the Rhine.

Letters from Hamburg of the 27th ult. state, that the Austrians have recrossed the Rhine in very great force; that a very severe action has taken place between General Clairfayt and the French, near Mayence, in which the latter were completely, with the loss of several pieces of cannon. There is also a report on the continent, that the siege of Luxemburg has been raised but we are not certain of this intelligence being authentic.
Twenty five thousand Austrian cavalry were said to be on their march to the relief of that fortress.

The general conversation abroad turns on the approaching alliance, offensive and defensive, between France and Prussia; and also of a triple alliance between the two Imperial Courts and Great Britain.

PHILADELPHIA, July 22.

NOTICE.

The citizens of Philadelphia, the district of Southwark, and Northeast Liberties, are invited to attend a meeting proposed to be held at the State House, on Thursday Evening next, at 5 o'clock, for the purpose of taking into consideration, the propriety of expressing their sense of the Treaty lately concluded at London, between Lord Grenville and Mr. Jay.

July 22, 1795.

TOWN MEETING.

At a general and numerous meeting of the citizens of Philadelphia assembled at the State house on Thursday the 23d instant, in pursuance of a previous public notification.

Dr. William Shippen in the chair, the following Resolutions were proposed, considered and UNANIMOUSLY adopted:

1. Resolved, that it is the constitutional right and patriotic duty of the citizens of the United States, to express on every important occasion, the public sense of public measures.
2. Resolved, that it is peculiarly the duty of the citizens to express the public sense, upon an infringement so novel, and so momentous as the treaty with Great Britain lately projected between Lord Grenville and Mr. Jay; affecting all the political interests, and national ties of the United States.

3. Resolved, that the citizens of Philadelphia, in judgment and in feeling, disapprove the treaty, and are desirous, as far as their influence extends, to prevent its becoming the supreme law of the land.

4. Resolved, that the following citizens shall constitute a committee to prepare and report a memorial, addressed to the president of the United States, respectfully but forcibly conveying the sentiments of the city of Philadelphia, on this important occasion:

COMMITTEE.

Thomas M'Kean, Charles Pettit, Jared Ingersoll, William Shippen, A. J. Dallas, John Swanwick, Moseley, Thomas Lee Shippen, Stephen Girard, Blair M'Clenahan, Abraham Coats, P. A. Muhlenberg, John Hann, John Barker, William Coats.

5. Resolved, that the citizens now assembled will adjourn to meet again in the State house at five o'clock on Saturday afternoon next for the purpose of receiving and considering the report of their committee.

By order of the meeting

Public Notice.

THAT on the 24th of December 1782, I located by virtue of Land office treasury warrant 800 acres of land near the head of a small creek that runs into main Licking a little below the upper Blue Lick, beginning at a tree at an old camp, running south one mile, thence west, thence north, thence east to the beginning, the west line to extend so far as for the following lines to include the quantity. That on the 15th of February 1786, I caused the said entry to be surveyed according to location, beginning at a tree at an old camp, therein called for and have since obtained a patent therefor. And as the testimony respecting the said tree, at the old camp depends on persons now living, in order to perpetuate their testimony I obtained from the county court of Bourbon, at their last court an order appointing commissioners to examine and take the depositions of such persons as I might judge proper by virtue of an act of the last session of assembly entitled "An act to ascertain the boundaries of lands and for other purposes." All whom it may concern are therefore desired to take notice that on the 18th day of August 95, I shall attend with the commissioners aforesaid and sundry witnesses at the said old camp, being the place where my survey of 800 acres aforesaid does begin, when and where I shall take the depositions of the said witnesses in order to establish the same and do such further acts therein as shall be necessary and as the said law directs.

TWO LIKELY NEGRO MEN RUN AWAY FROM THE SUBSCRIBER, Living in Mecklenburg county, Virginia:—

ONE of them named PETER, went off about five years ago; he is very black, tall and thin, and had many scars on his back, occasioned by whipping for running away before I had him—he could work a little at the shoe, basket, and collar-making business; has very crooked limbs, and if alive is now about 35 years old. The other went off the 14th of December last, and took with him my horse, saddle, bridle and great coat—he is of a yellow complexion, middle sized, has a limp in his gait and walks with his toes turned inward—he has been my miller for several years, is very sensible and pollavering, and can read tolerably well—he was born near Williamsburg, and it is expected, he will make his way thither, or farther to the northward, or probably, over the mountains to the westward—his name is DAVY, but it is expected he will change it to BOB, or to MICAJAH FENDLY, having some suppoise, stolen said Fendly's freedom pass, which is recorded in Mecklenburg county court.

The horse he took is a likely bay, about four feet eleven inches high, about nine years old, has the mark of some galls on his shoulders, steps very stately, holds his head high, especially when out of the bridle, his mane hangs on the wrong side. The saddle is country made and much worn. An old half-curb bridle. The great coat of drab colour, good cloth, with an old fashioned cape and a rent on the right side. He had on a good black velvet wolfcoat and breeches, and other clothes of good Virginia cloth.

Whoever secures the above described men and goods or either of them, so that I get them again, shall receive a liberal reward.
